TO: The Honorable Joseph Chachkin
Administrative Law Judge

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

Rainbow Broadcasting Company ("Rainbow"), by its attorneys, hereby requests the Presiding Judge to extend by ten (10) days the procedural dates set forth in his Order, FCC 96M-11, released February 2, 1996. In support thereof, the following is shown:

Undersigned counsel began his representation of Rainbow on February 6, 1996. A Joint Notice of Substitution of Counsel was filed on that date, and the firm of Renouf & Polivy, which had previously represented Rainbow, announced its withdrawal.

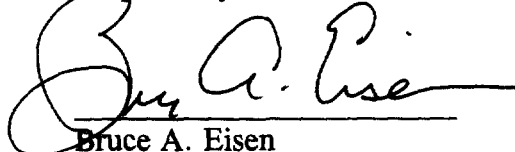

Undersigned counsel has only recently been provided with boxes of files which he must review in order to obtain sufficient knowledge of this proceeding to effectively represent Rainbow. It is understood that the transcript of a January 30, 1996 conference will be made available today, and that document, too, must be carefully analyzed.

Undersigned counsel has briefly discussed the aforementioned conference with counsel for the parties and understands the Judge's desire to move this proceeding as expeditiously as possible. However, it will be necessary to examine a very significant amount of documents to "get up to speed", and the provision of a brief extension of procedural dates will make it likely that the proceeding will actually move in a smoother fashion.

It is respectfully requested that the procedural dates set forth in the Judge's Order be extended by ten (10) days, so that the filing of freedom of information requests and the filing of any motion to produce documents from parties other than the Commission will be due on February 26, 1996; and the date for requests for admission as well as the further prehearing conference will be March 7, 1996.

Counsel for Press Broadcasting Company, Inc. and the Separate Trial Staff have stated that they would interpose no objection to this extension request.

Respectfully submitted,
